JDADA 2020 is a certification platform provided for the final semester students of JD Institute of Fashion technology, Kochi scheduled for the month of June 2020.

The candidates participating in the awards are provided with the guidebook that describes the process and timelines required to execute the project by May 8th 2020.

Groups are formed by the students and the institute plays no role in the selection or formation of the groups .

I agree that I/We have downloaded the JDADA 2020 guidebook and has gone through all the content thoroughly.

I/We understand that as per the guidebook if I/We do not abide by the deadlines, I/We will not be permitted to take part in JDADA 2020. In this case I/We will have to continue with the same timeline to complete the project and attend the jury to achieve the certification process.

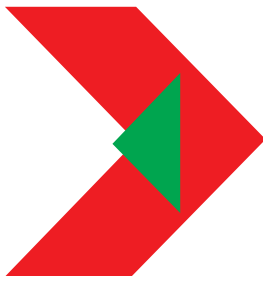

All finance related commitments that the individual/team undertake for the execution of the project will be under the sole responsibility of the individual/team members. Any discrepancies regarding the same shall be communicated and amicably settled with the consent of all the team members.

I am aware that once I am a part of the team I am not eligible to quit the team once the process enters the execution stage and in the event of quitting the team I will provide a compensation amount of 30 % of the total expense projected. In the event of quitting from a team I am aware that I will have to undertake the entire process of the project from the initial phase , a new concept and complete the same within the same deadline provided for my certification.

I/We are aware that the design mentors and subject experts provided by the institute is to assist in the development of our project. The decisions made for our project are my/our sole responsibility and we shall not hold any of the mentors or subject experts responsible for our failure to complete/ rejection of the project.

Any discrepancies/ disputes during the process of JDADA 2020 will have to be officially brought to the notice of the class mentor and to be presented with the core management team for a final decision.
